Mon, Jun 12, 2023

- 8:00 AM - 7:00 PM Registration
Location: The Holiday Inn Lobby
- 9:00 AM - 9:10 AM Welcome Address
Location: Vermont & New Hampshire Room
- 9:10 AM - 10:00 AM Keynote - Tribal Self-Determination and the Natural World
Location: Vermont & New Hampshire Room
Speaker: Jamie A. Pinkham
- 10:00 AM - 10:30 AM Coffee Break
Location: Hallway in Convention Hall Level

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Designing effective and equitable programs for voluntary conservation on agricultural lands

Location: Massachusetts Room

Farmer perspectives on agricultural payment for ecosystem services program efficacy and management

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Sara Kelemen

Drivers of conservation adoption on private lands in the western United States: Implications for large landscape conservation

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Chloe Wardropper

The policy and politics of incentives and other private land conservation tools for diverse and equitable conservation outcomes

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Adena Rissman

Evaluating new tools to incentivize habitat conservation on private lands in the western United States

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Hilary Byerly Flint

Farmer Perspectives on Performance-based Conservation Incentives in Vermont

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Alissa White

Equity in accessing payments for soil health: an institutional analysis of voluntary carbon marketplaces for agriculture

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Courtney Hammond Wagner

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Environmental Justice, Resilience, and Governance in Natural Resource Management and Conservation

Location: Connecticut Room

Community Social Vulnerability and Wildfire Occurrence in the Pacific Northwest

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Mindy Crandall

“Our Forests aren’t Fuel”: Community Resistance to Wood Pellet Biomass’ Environmental Injustices in the US South and Changing Global Governance

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Brianna Cunliffe

Public Support for Grid Modernization Policies in the US: The Influence of Power Outage Experience and Household Vulnerability

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Shawn Hazboun

Examining deterrents to National Forest recreation among people of color

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Ian Munanura

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Human dimensions of vector-borne disease ecology and management

Location: Rhode Island Room

Socio-ecological Predictors of Sustained Citizen-Led Control of the Asian Tiger Mosquito, Aedes albopictus

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Paul Leishnam

Tick-borne diseases, forest management and stakeholder participation in informing integrated pest management programs.

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Andres M Urcuqui Bustamante

Living in porous worlds: Exploring ideas of risk and insect control around Chagas Disease and American Cutaneous Leishmaniasis

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Susan Tanner

Coupled dynamics of tourism and mosquito-borne disease transmission

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: S Stone

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Leadership, Engagement, and Water Conservation: Perspectives and Practices

Location: Oxford Room

"Everybody has a different definition of good water quality": Conservation Stakeholders' Perceptions of Organizational Goals

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Oxford Room

Speaker: Austin Holland

Contributing to a Greater Cause: Does Personal Engagement in Water Conservation Behavior Matter?

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Oxford Room

Speaker: Olivia Erskine

The Role of Curiosity and Champions of Innovation in Transformational Environmental Leaders: A Mixed Methods Study

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Oxford Room

Speaker: Mark Burbach

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Sustainable Resource Management and Environmental Governance: Comparative Case Studies

Location: Cumberland Room

Getting the Money on the Ground in Priority Landscapes: Navigating New Challenges to Confront the Wildfire Crisis

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Brett Miller

Why Sustainable Resource Management of Matsutake in Different Communities Produced Different Results: A Comparative Case study in Northwest Yunnan Province, China

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Xinyang Li

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Wildlife Policy and Public Perceptions

Location: Kennebec Room

Wolf policy and politics in Central and Eastern Europe

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Krzysztof Niedzialkowski

Genetic Biocontrol: Understanding the public's perceptions

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Kiley Davan

Red Tape and Red-Cockaded Woodpeckers: Endangered Species Act Implementation by the Department of Defense

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Emily Rabung

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Access and accessibility of natural resources and outdoor recreation

Location: York Room

Outdoor Recreation: It's Time to Talk Benefits and Who's Still Missing Out

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: York Room

Speaker: Patricia Winter

Exploring hunting access in Idaho with descriptive phenomenology

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: York Room

Speaker: Kerrick W. Robinson

Bang For Your Buck: Online Hunting Marketplace and Emergent Economies of Access

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: York Room

Speaker: Nicole Venker

Innovative tools and approaches using technology for engagement of underserved communities in natural resources

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: York Room

Speaker: Ross Andrew

Understanding the effect of protected area designation on traditional herder attitudes and behaviors in Mongolia: Results from a household survey.

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: York Room

Speaker: Emily Huff

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Best Practices in Deliberative Science from Environmental Social Scientists

Location: Lincoln Room
Speakers: Erin Seekamp, Mae Davenport

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

Lunch (on your own)

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Advancing climate resilience in and through education: The role of education institutions in just energy transition

Location: York Room
Speakers: Zoe Ketola, Shardul Tiwari, Zachary Hough Solomon, Katherine Huerta Sanchez

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Environmental Justice, Equity, and Resilience in Diverse Contexts: Policy, Research, and Practice

Location: Massachusetts Room

Exploring Cumulative Environmental Impacts on Native American Health Outcomes through Research and Practice at the U.S. EPA

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Massachusetts Room
Speaker: Kathleen Torso, PhD

Food Systems and Wellbeing along Rural-Urban Continua: Framing Lived Experiences within Discussions of Food Sovereignty

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Massachusetts Room
Speaker: Alex Theophilus

Equity in Resilience: A Case Study of the Rogue River Basin in the Context of Wildfire Disturbance

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Massachusetts Room
Speaker: Emma Sloan

Race and income as predictors of trust in flood mitigation strategies

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Massachusetts Room
Speaker: Wendy Sangucho

Challenges to environmental justice policy development: intersectional issues and polycentric governance

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Massachusetts Room
Speaker: Jessica Rudnick

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Improving wildlife management understanding and response to climate change: The Civilian Climate Corp on wildlife refuges

Location: Connecticut Room

Linking managers and the next generation of conservation practitioners to prepare for a climatically uncertain future in the National Wildlife Refuge System

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Connecticut Room
Speaker: Nifer Wilkening

Novel approaches for wildlife managers in unfamiliar territory: Exploring plausible future trajectories in a region of unprecedented ecological change

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Connecticut Room
Speaker: Denna Martinez

Drivers and Effects of Ecological Transformation on Coastal Refuges

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Connecticut Room
Speaker: Ashley Garcia

Collaborative conservation for a drier future: Challenges and opportunities on wildlife refuges in arid regions

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Connecticut Room
Speaker: Lane Lopez

Using scenario planning, the RAD framework, and the controllability matrix to incorporate climate change adaptation into long-term planning documents

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Location: Connecticut Room
Speaker: Gabriel van Praag

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Intersections of Agriculture, Environment, and Community Well-being

Location: Rhode Island Room

Social wellbeing and the pathways to the adoption of regenerative grazing

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Jonathan Vivas

Water Quality Perceptions and Planning for the Future: A Tale of Two Montana Watersheds

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Megan Moore

Risk perception of heavy metal soil contamination among Indiana urban farmers

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Nathan Shoaf

Utah Ranchers' Views of Smart Foodscapes: Applied and Methodological Insights

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Rhode Island Room

Speaker: Jessica Schad

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Offers and Needs Market: A mutual-aid networking and community building event

Location: Oxford Room

Speakers: Kathleen Epstein, Kelli Roemer

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Stakeholder Perspectives on Conservation and Recreation in Protected Areas

Location: Cumberland Room

Analyzing spatial-temporal visitor use patterns via a census image dataset from a urban-proximate state game area

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Elizabeth (Bess) Perry

Stakeholders' perception regarding the contribution of park revenue sharing in promoting conservation and development: Evidence from buffer zone program in Nepal

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Sweta Dixit

Exploring the Links between Conservation Behaviors, Recreation Specialization, and Patterns of Participation in Citizen Science

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Haley Smith

Panel studies vs. random samples: A comparison of survey methods in Oregon's Statewide Comprehensive Outdoor Recreation Plan

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Lydia Gorrell

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Teaching Society and Natural Resources in a Convergent World

Location: Kennebec Room

Speakers: Joan Brehm, Brian Eisenhauer, Courtney Flint, Carla Trentelman

2:30 PM - 3:00 PM

Coffee Break

Location: Hallway in Convention Hall Level

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Are You Ready? Publishing Books and Papers

Location: York Room

Speakers: Richard Krannich, Kate Sherren, Emily Huff, Kristin Floress

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Asserting and reasserting control and management of lands, territories, and resources

Location: Massachusetts Room

Cree experiences in negotiating forest management and autonomy on Eeyou itschee with Québec

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: François-Xavier Cyr

Indigenous engagement in the forestry sector: Understanding the role and influence of Forest Stewardship Council and its renewed commitment to the principle of Free, Prior and Informed Consent

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Sara Teitelbaum

Whose got my back [forty]?: Private landowners navigating the social-ecosystem of support institutions in the Maritime Provinces of Canada

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Massachusetts Room

Speaker: Tom Beckley

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Place Attachment and Community Attachment in Resource Management

Location: Connecticut Room

Integrating passive and active sensing systems in support of sustainability transformation and new understandings of senses of place

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Christopher Raymond

Integrating senses of place into planning of social-ecological systems in cross-border contexts

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Sarah Gottwald

Manifold Relations: An Examination into Types of Community Attachment and Commitment

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Connecticut Room

Speaker: Douglas Smith

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Integrating Knowledge Systems and Stakeholder Engagement in Human-Environment Systems Research for Sustainability

Location: Oxford Room

Human dimensions of participatory modeling outcomes in transdisciplinary research on the sustainability of regional food-energy-water systems

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Oxford Room

Speaker: Kaustubh Kumar

“When we consider Manoomin first”: Weaving Knowledge Systems in a Tribal-University Collaborative with Manoomin/Psinj (Wild Rice)

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Oxford Room

Speaker: Hannah Jo King

Six Gears for Stakeholder Engagement in Complex Human-Environment Systems

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Oxford Room

Speaker: J. Leah Jones-Crank

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Stakeholder Engagement and Collaborative Governance in Water Resource Management

Location: Cumberland Room

Using the Transtheoretical Model of Behavior Change to Explore Forest Landowner Perspectives on Water Quality

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Luke Briccetti

Stakeholder Engagement within Water Governance Processes in the Klamath Basin (USA): A Power theory-based Analysis

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Cumberland Room

Speaker: Hannah Whitley

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Understanding Visitor Preferences and Planning for Sustainable Outdoor Recreation

Location: Kennebec Room

Treasured and imperiled experiences: Metroparks, climate change, and perspectives of southeast Michigan residents and recreationists

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Erin Budzyn

Eliciting protected area professionals' beliefs and cultural assumptions towards outdoor recreation in protected areas: A step towards effective planning and management in Brazil

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Kika Bradford

Thinking like your visitor: Predicting visitor preferences as a manager of parks and protected areas

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Michael Brunson

Attitude towards survey among wildlife resources users

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Location: Kennebec Room

Speaker: Kenneth Wallen

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Hub Conversations

Location: Lincoln Room

Speaker: William (Bill) Stewart

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Poster Session/Silent Auction

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

The impact of offshore wind development on recreational ecosystem services

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Steph Walsh

"Mixed Motivations: thinking about nested engagement for monitoring private well water with citizen science "

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Danielle Wood

Comparing perspectives of restoration site practitioners and recreators to improve engagement and conserve social value

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Kaytee Canfield

Weaving fragmented lands together: Perspectives on a national framework for landscape conservation

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Jaimie Baxter

Woody Encroachment Management Mismatches between Producers and Conservation Professionals in Nebraska

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Emily Rowen

Understanding the Opportunities for Conservation-oriented Adaptations in Rhode Island

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Mary Strickland

Making the Case for the Great Dismal Swamp National Heritage Area: A Scoping Review

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Maddie Newton

Health practices in forests: representations of nature and practitioners' needs in Quebec, Canada

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Delphine Theberge

Overcoming barriers to food access in rural areas through agro-ecosystems

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Kristin Gibson (she/her)

Beliefs or opinions? Evaluating propositional attitudes towards changing access for outdoor activities in Idaho

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Kerrick W. Robinson

Understanding prospective visitor demand, outdoor recreation preferences, and recreation-related ecosystem services on the San Dimas Experimental Forest

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Michelle Carr

Identifying spatiotemporal intersections of high fire potential and high visitation rates to understand visitor displacement characteristics

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Brian Peterson

Societal Value and Role of the Landsat Data Ecosystem in Resource Management, Advocacy, and Science

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Sarah Schenkein

Characterizing actors in Canadian wildland fire monitoring using a network analysis approach

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Morgan Crowley

Values Mapping for Planning in Regional Ecosystems (VaMPIRE): A Public Participatory GIS Application

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Emily Wilkins

This poster demonstrates the capabilities and limitations of Streetlight Insight, a GPS and Location Based Service analysis platform, to model the visitation of Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts (WOTR). Located near Washington, D.C., WOTR's g

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Russell Hicks

Examining Indigenous Participation in Community Wildfire Protection Plans (CWPPs)

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Christian Heisler

Experiencing Agamon Hula Valley Nature and Ornithology Park (Israel) – as self-reported by different cultures.

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Tatiana Iretskaia

Our Forests aren't Fuel": Community Resistance to Wood Pellet Biomass' Environmental Injustices in the US South and Changing Global Governance

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Brianna Cunliffe

A social unveiling of natural genomic researchers

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Renata Mont'Alverne

Exploring Motivations and Barriers to Outdoor Recreation as Experienced by Underrepresented Minority Groups in Maine

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Gabrielle Venne

Interactions with Wildlife: Exploring Childhood Activities, Memorable Experiences, and Current Recreational and Conservation Behaviors of Environmental Professionals

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Kristi Lekies

Intersections of Barriers to Equitable Food-Energy-Water System Resources Across the United States

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Haleigh Summers

The influence of social capital on collaboration towards wildfire resilience in northwestern Wyoming

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Hannah Spencer

Integrating Environmental Justice into Policies and Action for Urban Heat Island Mitigation in the US

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Xiaofei Qin

Local perceptions of Atlantic salmon conservation and management in Downeast Maine

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall

Speaker: Melissa Flye

Building relationships for the future: How to develop partnerships for long term ecological research

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Sashi White

Acadia National Park and COVID-19: Understanding Changes in Trail Use During the Introduction of a Pandemic

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Natalie Siwek

A bird in the hand: Impacts of children's experiences with birds on environmentalism

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Seunguk Shin

Impacts of normative beliefs and trust in agency on level of support for elk hoof disease management actions in Washington State

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Lena Le

Themes of Marine Degradation in Environmental Communication on Twitter

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Tyler Pridemore

HDgov: Sharing social science through multi-agency collaboration

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Julie Minde

Identifying and Understanding Citizen Preferences for Landscape Change Caused by Large-Scale Solar in Rural Nova Scotia

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Emily Snair

Landscape-scale patterns in trail reviews: A natural language processing mixed methods approach

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Location: Casco Bay Exhibit Hall
Speaker: Dani Dagan

7:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Networking Happy Hour

Location: Port of Call Restaurant

Tue, Jun 13, 2023
